Re: In re Nat'l Football League Players' Concussion Injury Litig., No. 2:12-md-2323

Dear Judge Brody:

We represent plaintiff-objectors retired NFL player Preston Jones and his wife Katherine Jones ("Jones Objectors"). We write in response to the recent filings regarding attorneys' fees by the Molo Lamken firm (on behalf of the Faneca Objectors) and Co-Lead Class Counsel (Dkt. Nos. 7106 and 7109).

We agree with the concept, reflected in both of the above filings, that petitions for attorneys' fees for services benefitting the Class should be considered together on a uniform briefing and hearing schedule. Likewise, it is our intention to file a fee petition shortly related to the Jones Objection's role in expanding benefits to class members who played in NFL Europe. We therefore also agree with the Molo Lamken firm that there is no harm in filing such fee petitions early, in advance of the setting of such a schedule, and that such early filed petitions most efficiently should remain on file in anticipation of consideration on any future schedule set by the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ James T. Capretz
